EMBURSE INSIGHT ADVISOR

Expert guidance. Easier reporting.

Reimagine reporting with a modern and efficient reporting solution to manage your mountain of data.

Small and large businesses alike need a quick view into their spending, as well as an efficient way to answer questions or achieve a business outcome.

Partnering with Emburse Insight Advisor gives you direct access to an expert who can revolutionize your relationship with data. They advise on small reporting-related tasks, tackling a global reporting strategy, and everything in between.

Anyone can build reports. We help you build stories.

Insight Advisor includes an expert-level data consultant who will be your first line of support for all data and reporting-related questions. Our team offers a wide range of needs:

- Answering report questions
- Building/design guidance
- Scheduling reports
- Customizing analysis tools for finance or audit purposes
- Creating management/executive level dashboards
- Apply industry trends and analysts' predictions to deliver unique customer content

EXPERT GUIDANCE

Our team is excited to share decades of analytics experience in the T&E space so your organization can achieve its goals.

DEFINE METRICS THAT MATTER

We'll work with you to transform data into new key performance indicator reports to reduce costs, increase efficiency, and improve adoption.

DO MORE WITH MORE TIME

We take your data narrative to the next level, helping your team to contribute strategically rather than transactionally.
